Start-all.sh → This command stats all the hadoop services that we can very using jps command.

Jps → This command is used to check whether hadoop services are running.

Hadoop serices like name node, secondary name node, data node, job tracker, task tracker.

Pwd → Present working directory. To know the path of working directory.

Ls → to list files and folders in current directory.

Ls –l → long listing files and folder in current working directory.

Nano → this command is used to create a file in current directory.

Cat → this is used to get the content of file.